

Spring is here and classes are in progress!

Flower Gardening 101?

Learning at Lockwood's continues with a season full of educational programs and workshops. Pre-registration is necessary, please, so we can plan for handouts and food. Stop by the shop or call us at 649-4684. More info: www.weknowplants.com

Saturday, May 28th

No classes (Memorial Day weekend)

Saturday, June 4th, 11:30am

Summer Container Planter or Windowbox Workshop, with Mary Gurtler

Choose among the newest and longest-flowering annuals and plant a container full of blooms; gardening expert Mary Gurtler will offer tips about the plants and their care.

Fees

$35

Saturday, June 4th, 1:00pm

Insect-Eating Plants: Carnivores of the plant world, with David Clark

How to keep your Venus flytrap snappy, your pitcher plants filled, and Sundews sticky. Plant discounts for youth. Fees: $10 adults, $5 youth ages 7 through 14.

Plant discounts for youth

Fees

$10 adults, $5 youth ages 7-12 free

Saturday, June 11th, 1:00pm

Hypertufa workshop – CANCELLED

Saturday, June 18th

Hostas Large and Small, with Mike and Kathy Shadrack

Learn about the incredible genus Hosta, from international experts, including how to choose superior hostas from the thousands on the market. The new (2011) Book of Little Hostas, by Kathy Shadrack and Mike Shadrack, will be available for signing..

Fee and details

$10.

Saturday, June 25th

Perennials Day at Lockwoods Greenhouses

We're kicking off the National Garden Festival with a day of great speakers. Program includes a delightful catered luncheon under the tent.

Topics:

- 9:30 Sally Cunningham, WNY garden expert, author, and columnist will present Designing with Flowers for Front Yard Curb Appeal
- 10:45 Kerry Ann Mendez, author of The Perennial Gardener's Top Ten Lists, will speak on Blue Ribbon Perennials for your Winning Garden.
- 1:00 Tony Post, Valleybrook Greenhouses: Rock Stars for Alpine or Miniature Gardens
- 2:00 Ken Parker, founder of Sweet Grass Gardens (North America's first native plant nursery): Native Perennials, Grasses, and wildflowers for WNY Gardens.

Fees:

Four talks with luncheon: $50

Morning or Afternoon only without luncheon: $25

Saturday, July 16th

Herbal Symposium and Lunch, with special guest Marian Prezyna and Pat Jenney

9:30am

Herbs in the garden—Growing annual and perennial herbs, herb garden design, growing conditions, care and harvesting, with herbalist Pat Jenney.

10:30am

Coffee, Tea & scones (and herbal delights) with Mary Trifunovic

11:15am

Herbs for greener living—practical and traditional uses for the home, cosmetics, health, and what you need to know about backyard medicine (Magical herbalist Marian Prezyna, Catstail Farm)

Registration information and fees

To be determined.